

The Rudden Family Foundation
16 Pacific Avenue
Reading, PA 19608
Joe Rudden
610-207-9257
Joe@TRFoundation.org

The Rudden Family Foundation delivers donated clothing, furniture, housewares, etc. to people living in poverty in Berks County, helping them make their apartment or house into a real home. We coordinate with over 20 local non-profit organizations to identify clients to receive the donated items.

Accepted donations in good condition:

Clothing, shoes, coats, hats
Furniture & rugs
Beds & bedding, towels, shower curtains & rugs
Appliances- in working condition, particularly microwaves
Kitchenware- dishes, glasses, silverware, pots & pans, utensils, etc.
Housewares, curtains
Toys, games, sporting equipment
Books, pencils, pens, copybooks, crayons, coloring books, markers, chalk
Computers, laptops, printers, DVD & VCR players, radios, clocks, TV's
Tools, hardware, shelving, lumber & building materials
Patio grills, tables, benches, chairs, umbrellas
Lawn mowers, chain saws, spreaders, rakes, shovels, etc.
Senior equipment- hospital beds, walkers, wheelchairs, shower seats, etc.
Art- paintings, prints, frames, posters, figurines, etc.
Musical instruments including pianos
Food, cooking supplies, recipes
Good running cars & trucks; trailers

Donations may be dropped off at our warehouse- long driveway between houses NEXT TO 320 South 13th street Reading Tues. – Fri. 8 am -4 pm. Pickups arranged with Joe same days & times, but flexible. Will pick up in any room at location.